PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Junior developer with a degree in Systems Analysis, actively transitioning into web development after a background of more than 8 years in technical support, customer service, and administrative management. Independently designed, built, and deployed 4 web applications (HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript) and developed a website for a real client, applying version control with Git/GitHub throughout the process. Integrate AI tools (GitHub Copilot, ChatGPT, Claude) into the development cycle to speed up code generation, refactoring, and debugging. Bring organizational discipline, attention to detail, and data-handling rigor gained from administrative experience, along with a proven ability to learn independently.
